DENPLAN GOLF FINAL A SWINGING SUCCESS

The Denplan Golf Challenge has been another swinging success in 2009, with Owen Dee and Luuan Graham from London Road Dental Practice in Cowplain, Portsmouth being named this year's champions.

Held at Druids Glen Golf Resort in Southern Ireland, from 5–7 October, the Denplan Golf Challenge Final was made up of the winning pairs from each of the eight regional heats held throughout the summer months. The 36 golfers, made up of Denplan members and other guest dentists, started with a warm up round on Monday afternoon and, after a lively evening, were up early to play in the final competition on Tuesday morning.

A very close second place went to Mukund Patel and Pieter Viljeon from Granville House Dental in Surrey, followed by Mark Gilbert from Upper Dumurry Lane, Belfast and Sean Corry from The Diamond Centre in County Londonderry.

Gemma Mills, Events Executive at Denplan commented: "The Denplan Golf Challenge is just one of many annual outings in the Denplan members' events calendar, and certainly one of the most long-running and popular. All the golfers and their supporters really enjoyed the stunning and prestigious location and are already expressing interest in next year's event!"

"We're already planning the Denplan Golf Challenge 2010 and more information will be available soon."
